GERMANS RUSH TO GET RID OF MARKS

Mad Orgy of Buying Caused by Wish to Turn Money Into Property.

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—Germany is shaking the baby's bank and emptying the old stocks. Marks and grochens are being sold in a mad orgy of buying and selling of your marks, but there is some sort of tangible property in the advice one receives from every side.

The little people are buying clothes, shoes, supplies of food, furniture, rugs, anything to turn doubtful marks into real, permanent values. The department stores are selling out faster than they can get deliveries.

"The mark means to us what we can get for it," explains the man on the street. "It is rapidly depreciating. We know what that means; we have been through it before. In a few months we can get only one-half for it what we are getting now, because prices haven't yet caught up with the drop. The man who is holding marks stands to take a big loss. We will turn our marks into real value, which won't depreciate." The man who has heavy holdings of marks needs no more clothes; he

COULDN'T LIFT HANDS TO HEAD

For Six Long Years Terre Haute Man Was Miserable With Rheumatism.

"Tanlac has put me on the road to health and I'm willing to go the limit for it," said Marcelus Boyer, 112 North 15th St., Terre Haute, Ind.

"For six years my life was miserable, as I suffered so much from rheumatism that I was in pain nearly all the time. My knees were all swollen up and ached day and night, while my elbows and arms were so stiff and sore at times I couldn't raise my hands to my head. My stomach was out of order, too, and I hardly got any rest and felt tired and worn out all the time."

"It was a lucky day for me when I began taking Tanlac for it has made me feel like a different man. My stomach is in fine shape and the rheumatism has nearly all gone, so I'm beginning to feel like I did when I was young."

Tanlac is sold in South Bend at the Central Drug Store and by all leading druggists.—Adv.

are perplexed about their big sales. "We are making a profit, according to the books," said the chief of one of the oldest Berlin firms, "but no business man today knows what he is actually earning or what he is worth. For he doesn't know where the mark actually stands."

Artificial Prosperity.
To the superficial eye Germany is the most prosperous country in Europe. "This is all artificial," declared Gordon Selfridge, the London merchant, after a few days in Berlin. Mr. Selfridge repeated the same comments which have been made by Lord Beaverbrook and other investors.

Electric cables which send up signals into the air are suggested as a means of guiding airmen during foggy weather.

Court Continues Cases to Give Defendants a Chance

Charles Taylor, 1111 E. Sorin st., arrested in company with Lee Thorpe, 1727 S. Chapin st., Saturday by Motorcycle Policemen Karl Smith, for operating an automobile without a state license, was granted a continuance in city court Monday to permit him to obtain a license, which the defendant claimed he had ordered.
